

المجلس القومي للمرأة
THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR WOMEN

National Efforts to eliminate Violence against Women in Egypt

2022

#سر_قوتك

Egyptian Constitution 2014

- The 2014 constitution includes articles for citizenship and equality between Egyptian citizens and the criminalization of discrimination through various article such as articles 9, 11, 53, 59, 89

- 20 Articles for women rights in the constitution

RESPECT, PROTECT AND FULFILL

Article 11

- Achieving equality between women and men in all civil, political, economic, social, and cultural rights
- The state commits taking the measures to ensure appropriate representation of women in Upper & Lower House. It grants women the right to hold decision making positions in entities & judicial bodies without discrimination
- The state ensures protection & care for motherhood & childhood, & for female heads of household, elderly women, & women most in need.
- Protection of women against all forms of violence. Ensures women empowerment to reconcile their duties toward family & work

National Women Machinery

Established by Presidential Decree 90, in 2000

Independent Machinery according to Law no.30/2018 sets its structure and mandates.

President of NCW has a ministerial degree & for the first time representation of rural woman, Woman with disability and youth in its board

2014 Constitution:

Article: 93: International agreements and conventions

Article: 214: National Councils, Independent Bodies

المجلس القومي للمرأة
THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR WOMEN

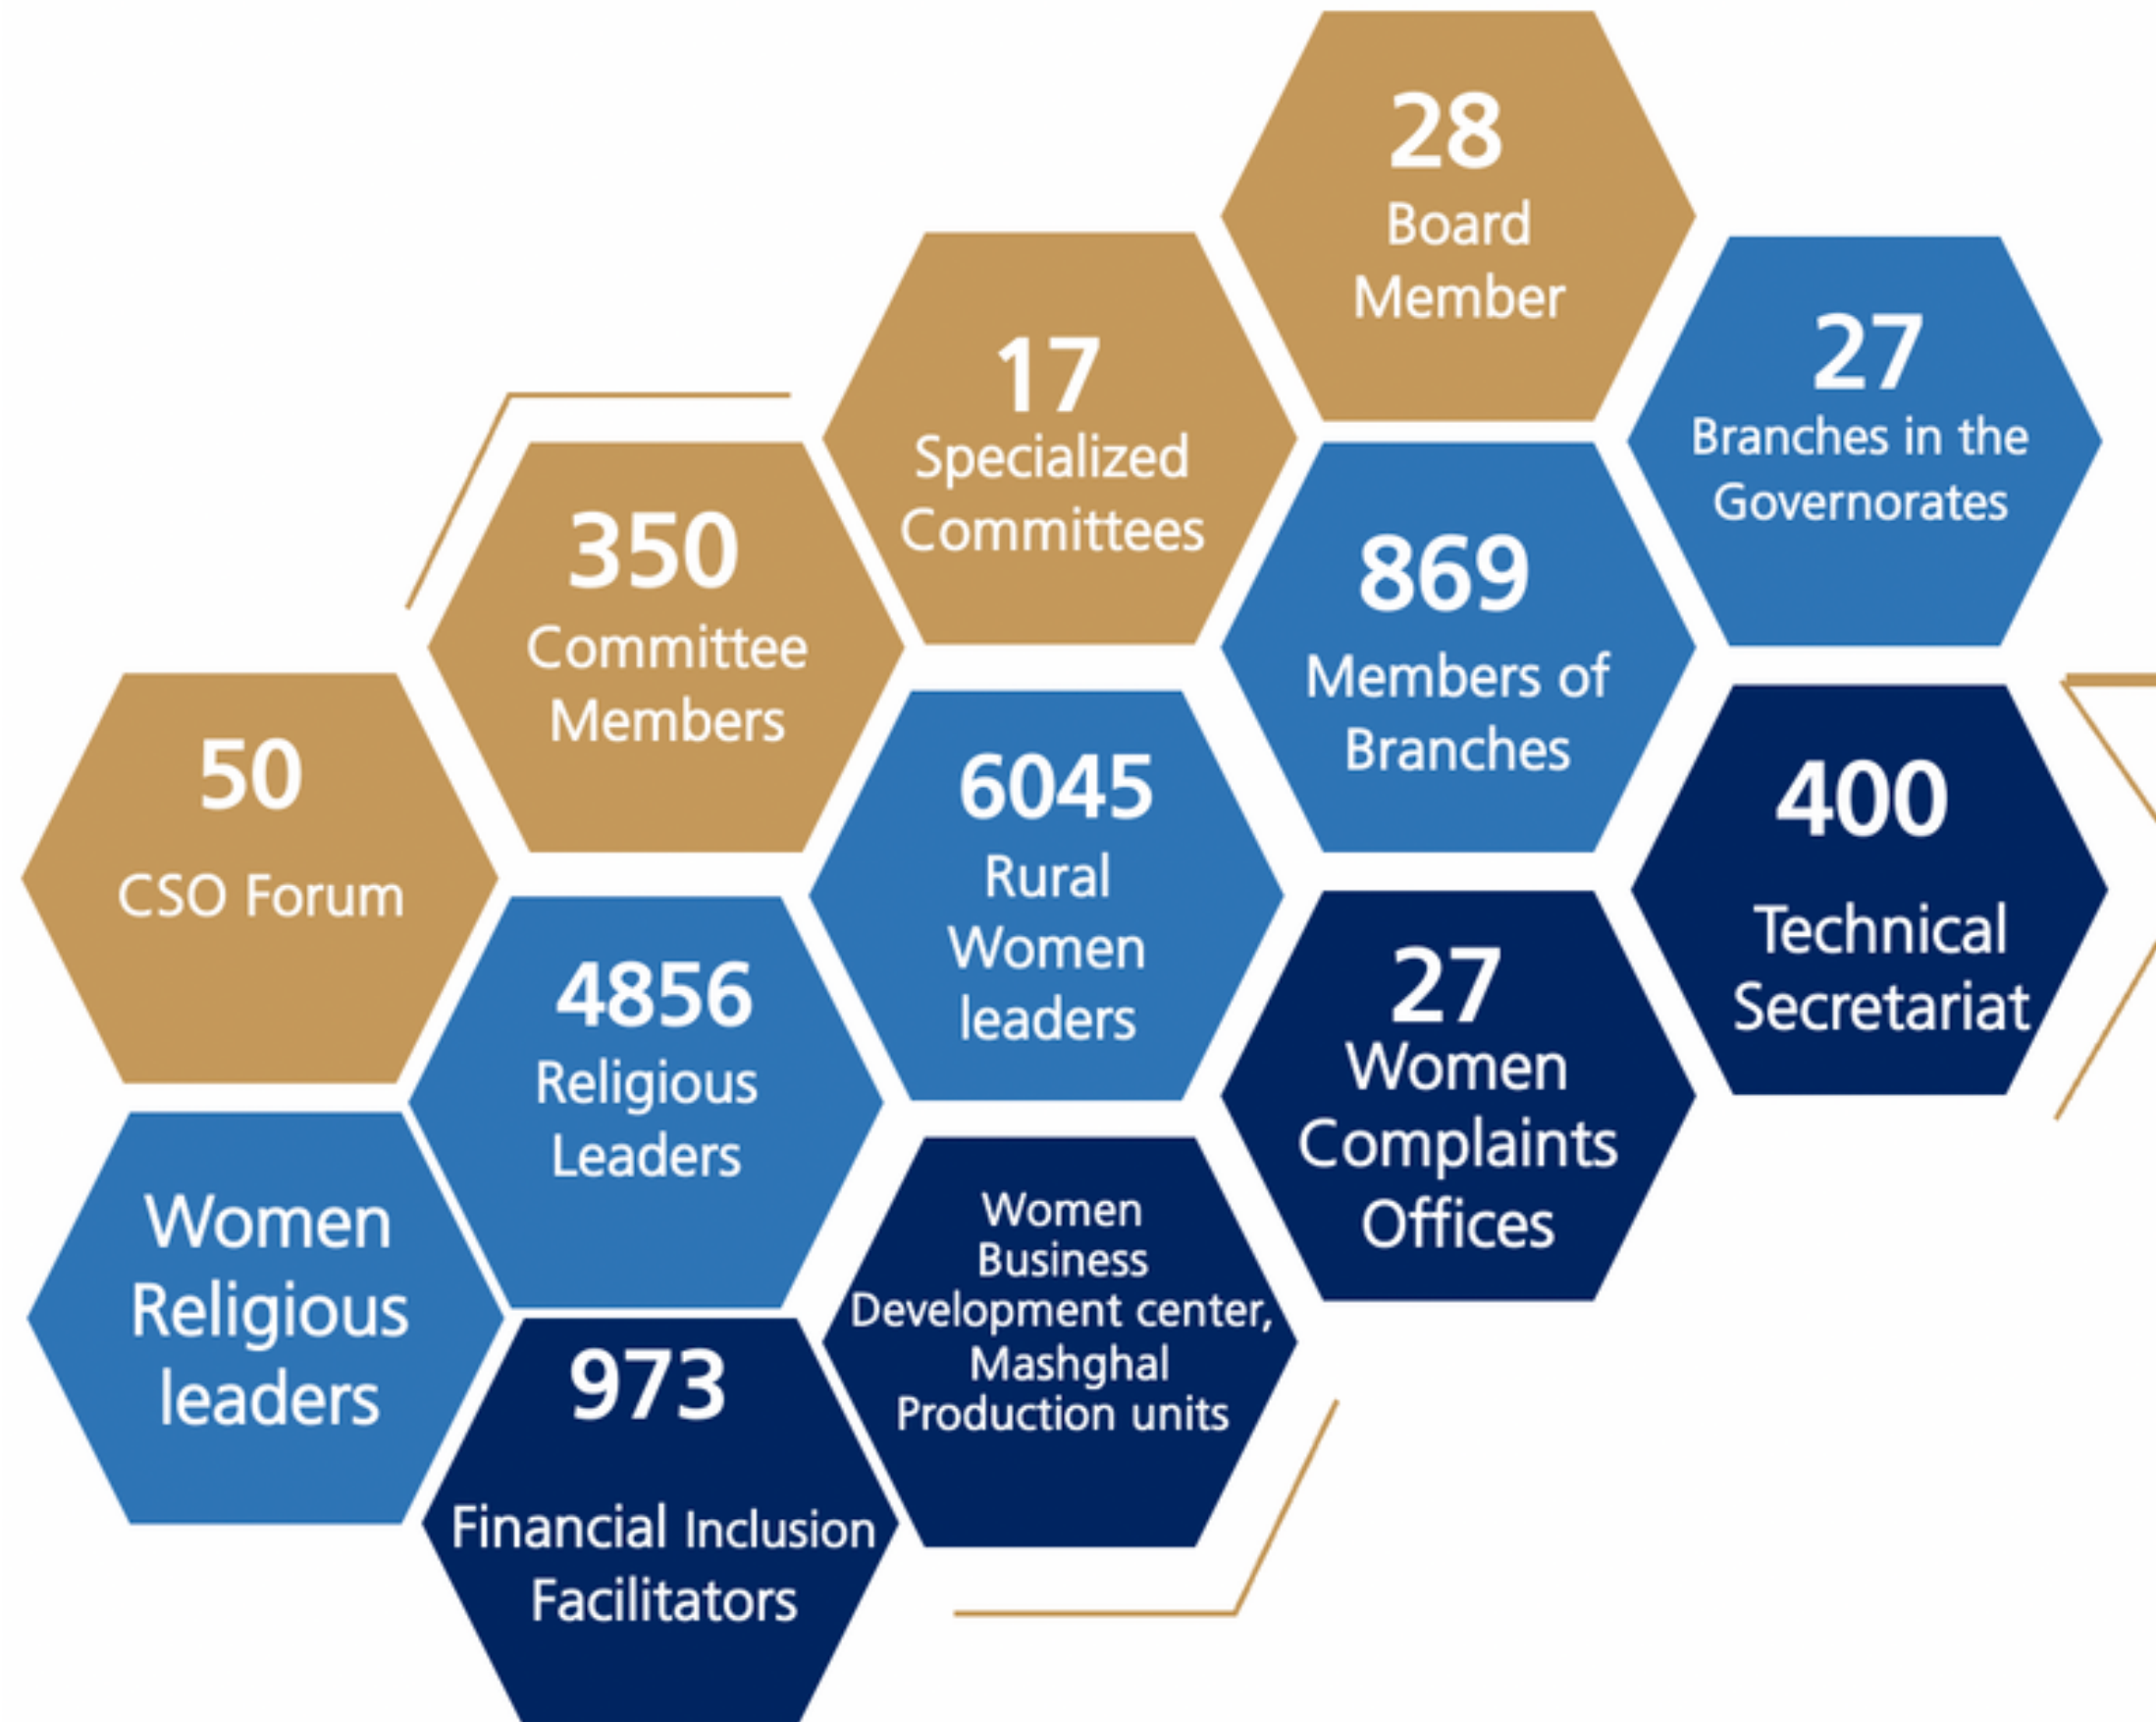

National Women Machinery

Entrusted with

- Proposing draft national plans
- Coordinating Following up & evaluate with government agencies the implementation of the state's national policy
- Proposing policies & Legislations
- Expressing opinions on international and regional conventions and agreements related to women
- Representing Egyptian women in international and regional forums
- Contributing to drafting the reports that the state submits periodically
- Receive and study complaints related to the violation of women's rights and freedoms, refer them to the competent authorities, work to resolve them with the concerned authorities, and provide the necessary judicial assistance
- Holding conferences, seminars, preparing research and studies
- Raising awareness and conducting training programs

The National Council for Women

Consists of

Strategic Framework

- Egypt's Vision 2030
- National Strategy for the empowerment of Egyptian Women 2030
- National Strategy to eliminate Violence against Women
- National Strategy to Eradicate FGM
- National Strategy to combat Child Marriage
- National Human Rights Strategy

National Strategy for Empowerment of Women 2030

- Egypt is the First country globally to align and launch its Strategy 2030 to both the SDG Global Agenda 2017
- It is aligned to Egypt vision 2030.
- Endorsed by the Egyptian President in 2017 “Women’s Year” to be the national policy and guiding document for the Government
- National Women Observatory to monitor Strategy Progress

The strategy used a Participatory approach

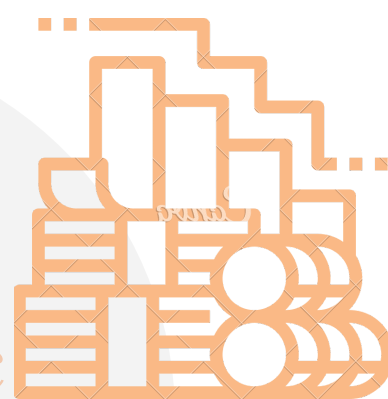

175,000 contributed in developing of the strategy

(Ministers – Governors – parliamentarians – youth – 180 civil society)

National Strategy for Empowerment of Women 2030

Political Empowerment &
Leadership

Economic Empowerment

Legislations & Awareness Raising

Social
Empowerment

Protection

2030
استراتيجية المرأة
WOMEN'S STRATEGY
EGYPT 2030

Strategic Coherence & Alignment

Protection pillar of in the NSEW 2030 was designed to be the main umbrella of the work under the VAW strategy until 2020, and continue to be the roadmap on eliminating VAW until 2030.

Reporting the Work under the National Strategy To Eliminate VAW

8 Indicators on the Protection from VAW

7 interventions on the protection from VAW

Women & COVID19

- Egypt was the first country globally to issue a rapid response policy towards women situation during covid19

- Egypt was also the first country globally to issue a 'Women Policy Tracker'.
(5 editions until Jan 2021)

- The UNDP & UNWOMEN COVID19 Global Gender Response Tracker indicated that Egypt is the first country in the middle east, north Africa region & Arab region to take gender sensitive measures

- The United Nations “General Assembly” unanimously adopts an Egyptian initiated resolution on Strengthening rapid response to the impact of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) on women and girls

Women & COVID19

Social Protection & protection from violence against Women

Labor Market measures

Protection from violence against Women

Fiscal & economic measures

165
Measure & policy
March 2020 - Jan 2021

Gender Sensitive measures

Violence against Women

Figures & Numbers

Launch of the Egypt Economic Cost of Gender Based Violence Survey to support evidence based policy-making (2015) based upon UNFPA international methodological model. Egypt is the first Arab country to conduct this survey

2.17 billion Egyptian Pounds

The total cost borne by the females and their families due to violence

10% of women (18 - 64 years)

were harassed in the Egyptian streets

7% of women (18 - 64 years)

were harassed in public transportation

18% of women (18 - 64 years)

Were subject to domestic violence from one of the family members

Violence against Women

Figures & Numbers

Launch of the Egypt Family health Survey (EFHS) results of 2021 that included Violence against women:

FEMALE GENITAL MUTILATION

age 0-19

21%

2014

14%

2021

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

for women ever married aged 15-49 that were subjected to any form of violence from the husband

Any form of Psychological &/or physical &/or sexual violence 31%

Any form of physical &/or sexual violence 26.1%

Psychological violence 22.3%

Sexual Violence 5.6%

Physical violence 25.5%

Violence against Women

Knowledge products, data collection, & analysis

“The Economic Cost of Gender Based Violence Survey” in 2015

“Violence against Women ... Dimensions and Coping Mechanisms”

“Survey of Egyptian Women’s Poll on the Emerging COVID-19”

Other studies are currently at the pipeline, such as:

A study on the prevalence of FGM

A survey on the social and economic repercussions of divorce on women and men

Violence against Women

Knowledge products, data collection, & analysis

Reporting on the National Strategy to Eliminate VAW 2015-2020: a report was launched in May 2021 by the National Council for Women with the purpose of providing a transparent tool to the public on the achievements, challenges and gaps of implementing this strategy and the way forward.

- Highlighting the most important results of the National Strategy to Eliminate Violence against Women (2015-2020).
- Showcasing detailed achievements and activities implemented under each of the four pillars of the strategy to provide a transparent tool for the public on what has been done and what the gaps are.
- Explaining the M&E process that took place during the implementation of the strategy.
- Acting as a new standing point that can be used to determine the way forward and future steps needed to continue and build upon the previous efforts to eliminated violence and discrimination

Legislative Framework

Laws

Women's Protection from violence

- Indecent Assault
- Cyber crimes
- Kidnapping
- Deprivation of inheritance
- Public and non-public indecent acts
- Disclosing data of women victims of violence
- Human trafficking and illegal migration
- Equal investment opportunities
- Social securities and pension
- Institutionalizing the work of NCW
- law regulating work of PwDs

Women's Protection from violence

- Sexual Harassment
- Intransigence in paying alimony
- Female Genital Mutilation
- Bullying
- Sexual Intercourse without consent (Rape)
- Forced/child/bargain marriage
- Protecting imprisoned mothers
- benefits to working mothers
- Inclusive health insurance law
- Rights of people with disabilities
- The new nationality law which aims to achieve the principle of equality between both men and women in granting Egyptian nationality

Legislative Framework

Decrees

- Establishing a one-stop shop for the protection of women victims of violence
- Issuing the national code of conduct for workers & users of transportation facilities
- Prohibiting any gender discrimination in dealing with all of financial companies' clients as well as developing financial (non-banking) products that are considerate to women needs.
- Issuing Code of conduct to prevent sexual harassment, violence and harassment within the work environment.
- prohibiting the transfer of working women from their workplace to another place without their desire
- Representing of women on the boards of directors of companies
- Adding a breadwinner woman among the priorities of applicants for housing apartments
- Educational guardianship of a divorced mother without the need for a verdict
- Marriage of a foreigner to an Egyptian
- CBE recently changed regulation of money guardianship over bank accounts

Violence against Women

Multidisciplinary approach

Specialized Criminal Departments in Courts of Appeal

31 Anti-VAW units in Universities

10 Medical Response
units in University
Hospitals

VAW unit in Ministry
of Justice

VAW units in Ministry
of Interior
Directorates

27 Digitized family
public prosecution office

Safe Cities and Women Friendly
Markets

Cyber Crimes
Campaign with Facebook &
Instagram

Violence against Women

Institutional mechanisms: NCW's Women Complaints Office 15115

- Strong Referral channels to concerned entities
- Social and Psychological support
- Free Legal Support

80 Office Lawyers & case management

450 Volunteer Lawyers

238,000

Complaints/inquiries
until March 2022

Violence against Women

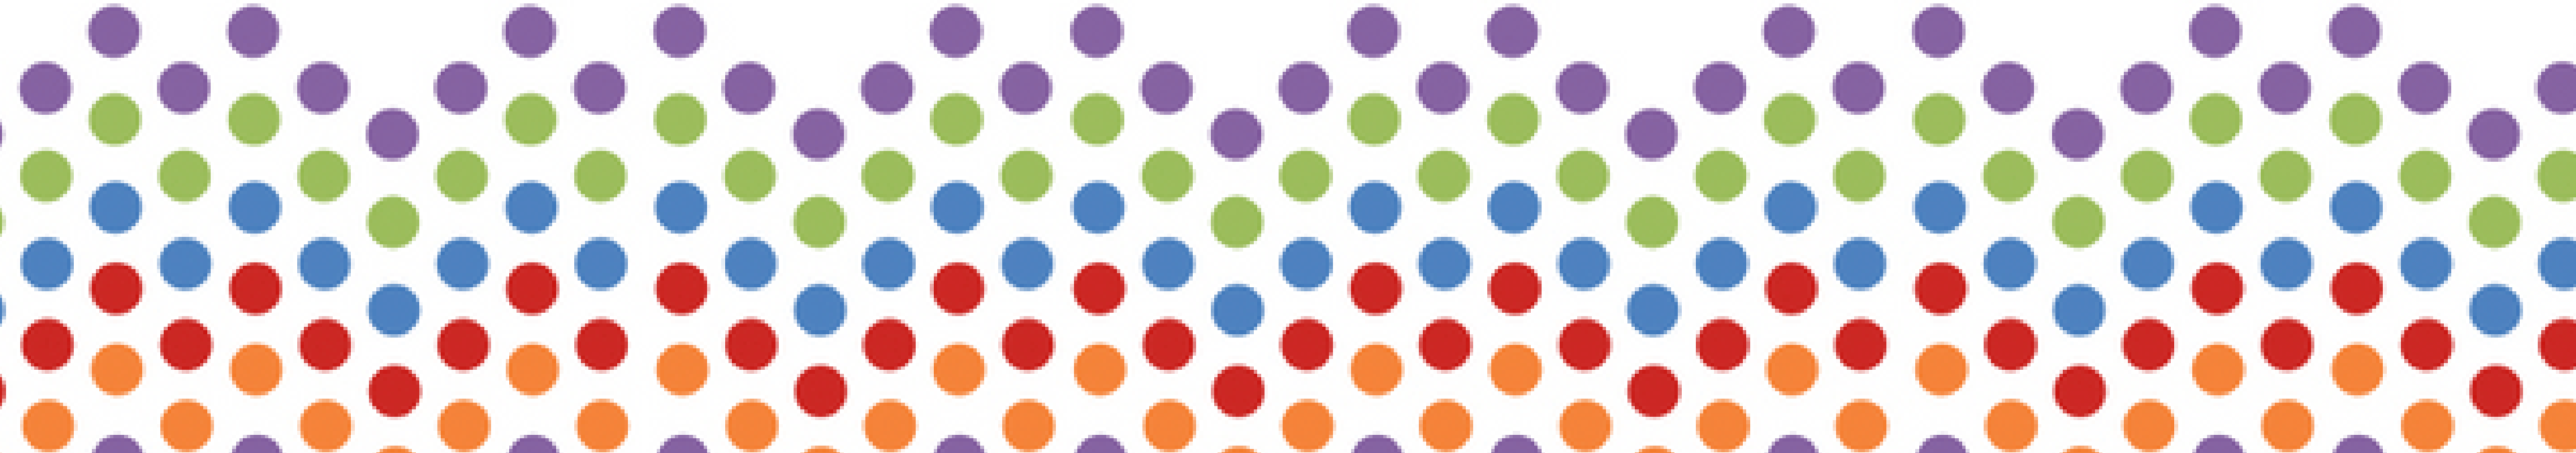

Reporting HOTLINES in Egypt

- The women's complaints office (WCO), affiliated to the National Council for Women (NCW), hotline 15115
- The child helpline affiliated to the National Council for Childhood and Motherhood 16000
- The WCO was provided with the necessary equipment and devices, and its employees were trained to receive reports through the hotline that operates 24/7.
- In 2020, the NCW announced that the office had started receiving complaints of human trafficking through its hotline 15115.
- The hotline of the General Secretariat of Mental Health to provide psychological support and support to citizens at home during the (COVID-19) crisis 0800880700, 0220816831.
- Public Prosecution Office to report cases of violence on WhatsApp: 01111755959.
- Customer service for the Ministry of Transportation 15047 to receive reports of harassment in public transportation and Egypt's railways.

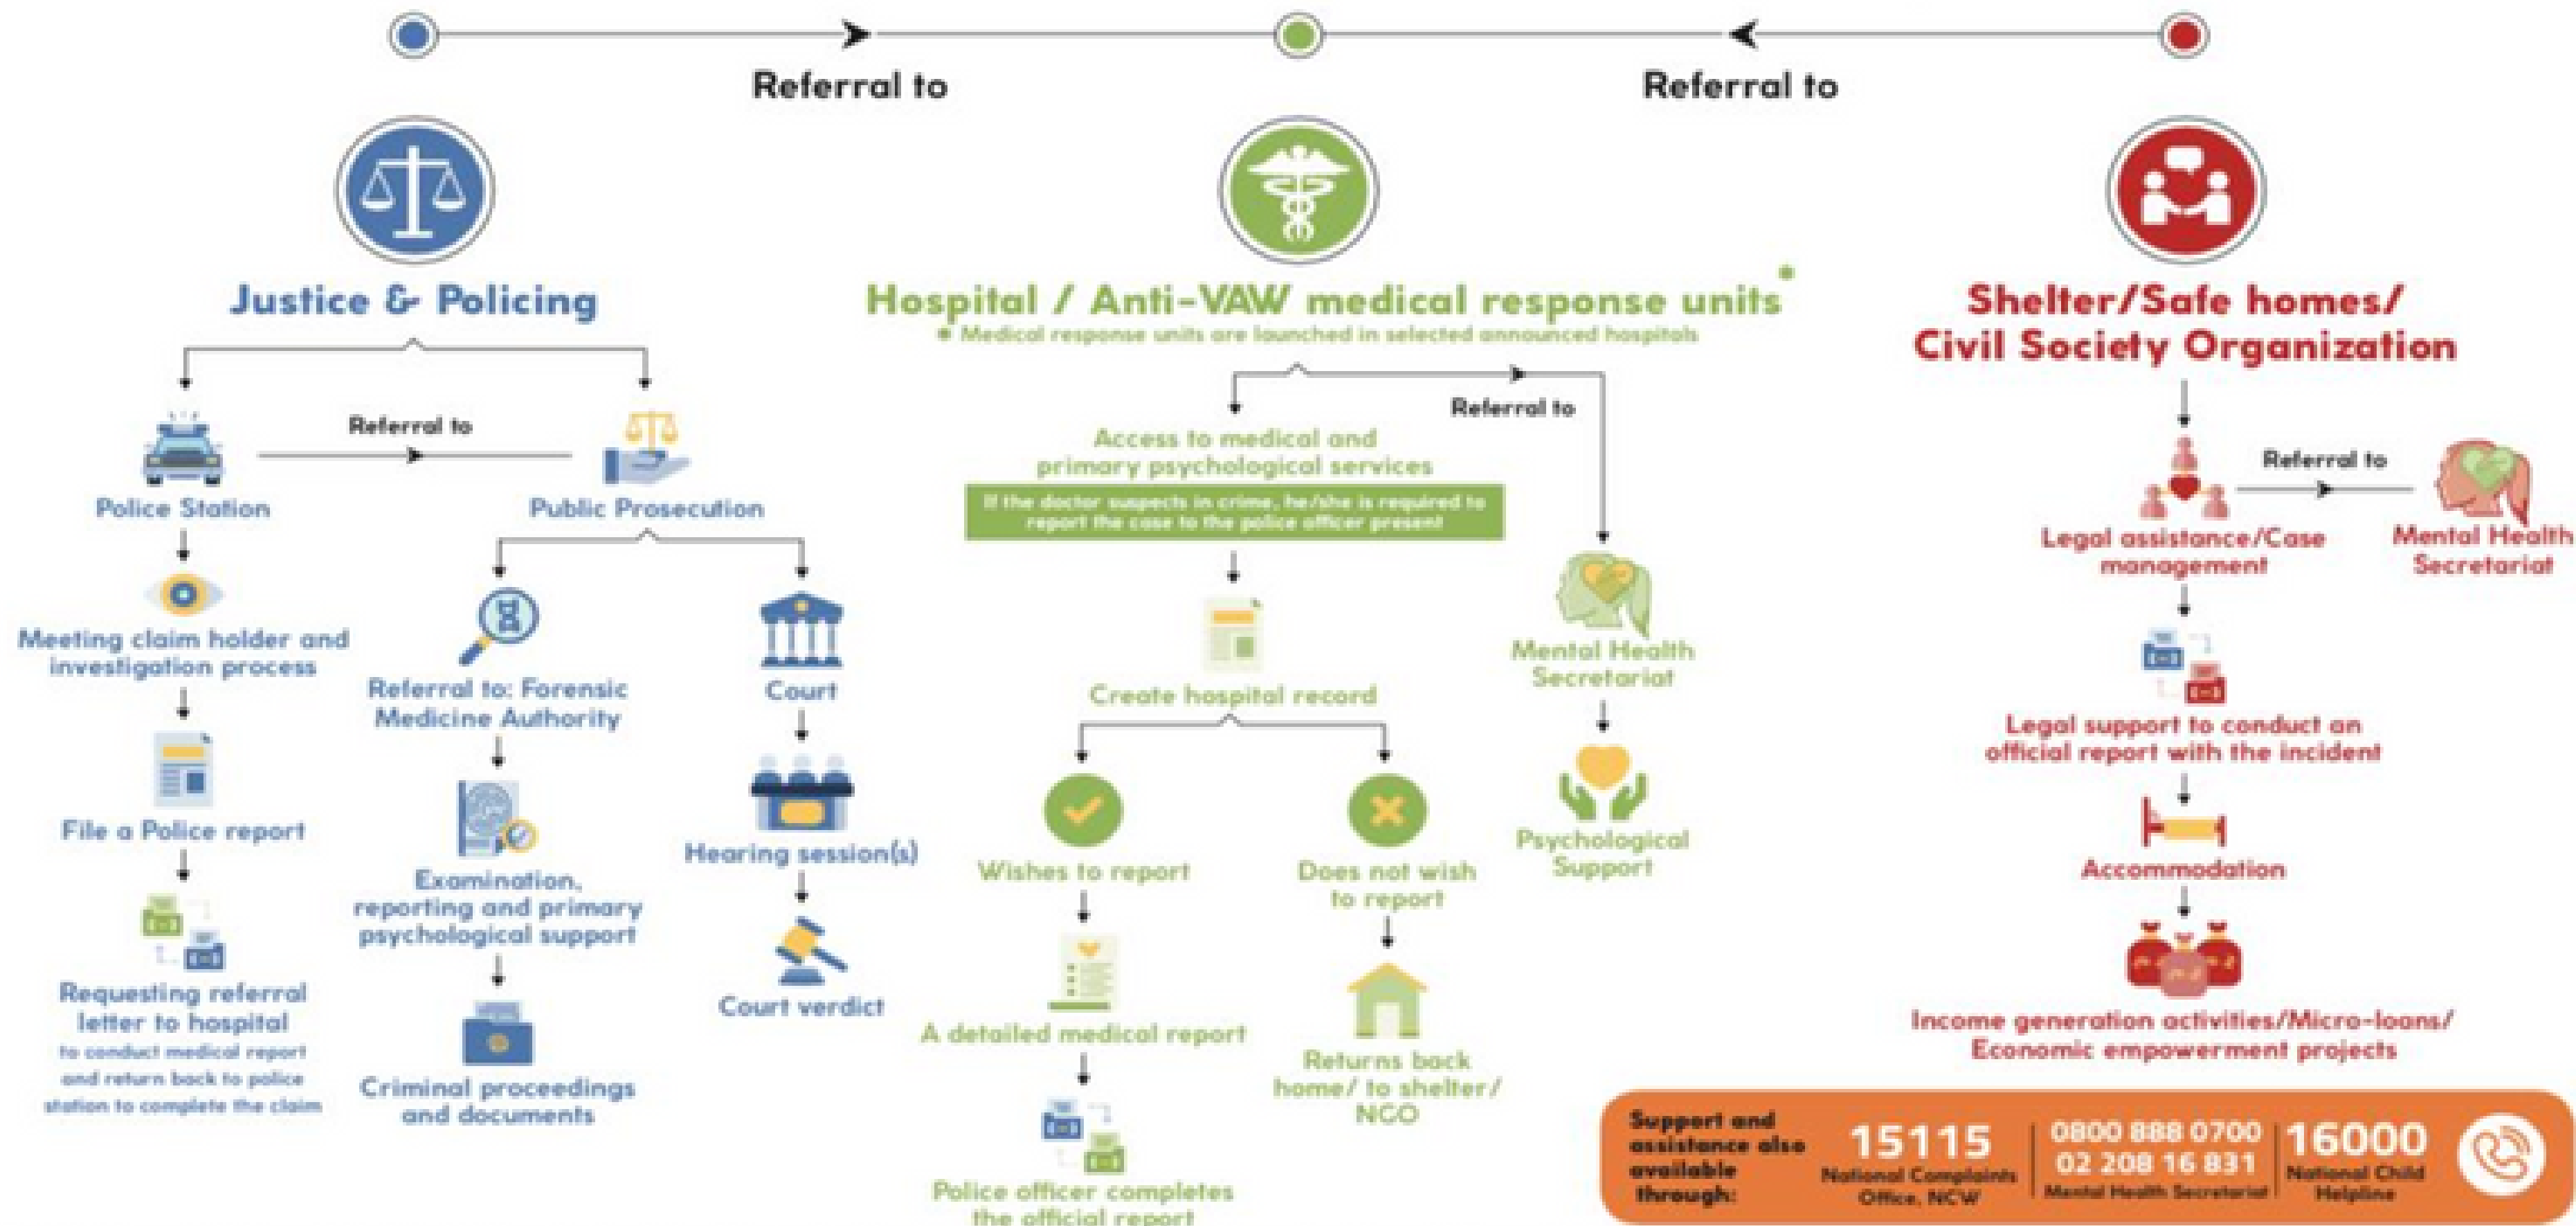

Violence against Women

Essential Services Package

Egypt was among first 10 countries to qualify to pilot UNFPA/UNWOMEN Global Essential Services Package (ESP) and the first national referral pathway to reporting violence cases was established

Referral pathway for women and girls subjected to violence in Egypt

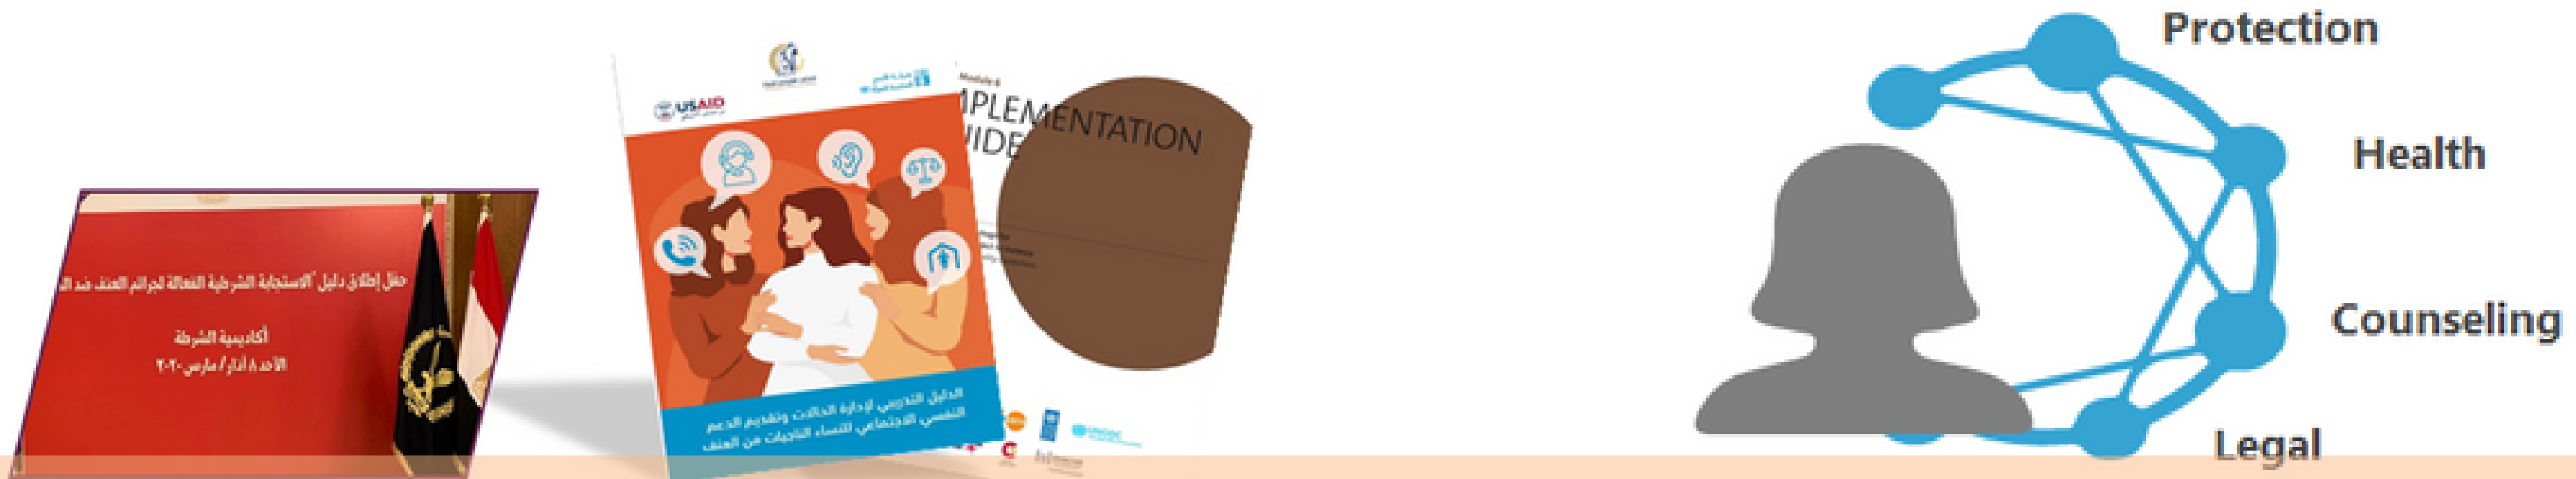

Violence against Women

Essential Services Package

The first national referral pathway to reporting violence cases was established. The model is distributed among entry points/first responders to VAW cases such as hospitals, health clinics, police departments, and units for combating violence against women in universities.

Issuing Manuals and continuous training programs to services providers in different sectors to ensure provision of:

Violence against Women

Trained Service Providers

100	Forensic Doctors
2,249	Physicians and nurses from public and university hospitals
133	Service providers from NGOs providing serviced to battered women
670	Representative of women's complaints office & social and psychological workers
140	Police officers
300	Representatives of anti-violence units in universities
60	Legal Ma'zoon
400	Family prosecution auditors
509	Public prosecution officers

611	Judges (men)
66	Judges (women)
127	Members of the Administrative Prosecution Authority

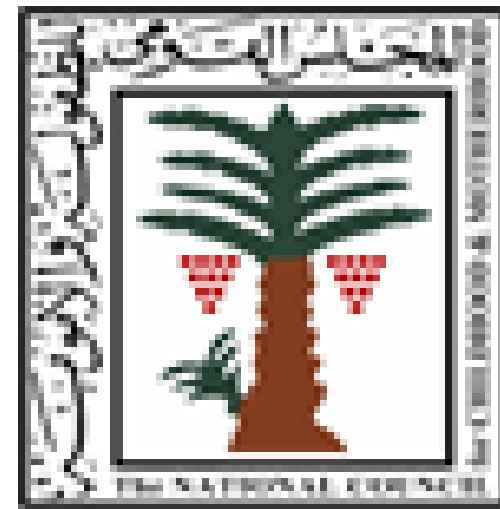

Total trained: 5,365

Violence against Women

The Crime of FGM

Establishment of National Committee for the Eradication of FGM for the first time in Egypt in May 2019

Co-chaired by and launching the Actionable framework to eradicate FGM

Partners

Gov.
Entities

Concerned
Law Enforcement
Entities

Al Azhar
Al sharif

The three Churches
in Egypt

Development
Partners

Civil Society

90 MILLION

Intervention Reach out

Violence against Women

Human Trafficking Crime

Establishment of National Coordinating Committee for Combating Illegal Migration and Trafficking in Persons

- Enacting the National Strategy to Combat Human Trafficking 2016-2021
- Establishing a specialized criminal department by the MoJ
- Law on Combating Illegal Immigration and Smuggling of Migrants
- First Shelter for Human Trafficking in Egypt
- Capitalizing on Hotlines 15115 and 16000
- Presidential Awareness Raising campaign on illegal migration
- Legislative framework for women domestic workers

Ideational Change & Fighting Stereotypes

Secret of your power reached
135 million views/follows

Because I am a man
campaign and sports

Safe transportation for women

Knocking Doors reaching 48 million Visits

Women Religious Leaders Group for Awareness Raising

Ideational Change & Fighting Stereotypes

"Hatefre'y"
(You Matter)
Song

Nour
Song

"Harassment is a crime
Speak up"

Mateskoteesh
(Don't be silent)
Campaign

25% increase in reports on the hotline of the Women's Complaints Office

Adolescent girls empowerment

Empowerment of Adolescent Girls

In March 2022, The First Lady in Egypt announced the auspices of programs to empower Egyptian Girls in Egypt. The programs include open discussion with adolescent girls to help them express themselves as well as providing coaching and trainings on health, education, means to end violence, leadership, etc.

DAWWIE PROGRAM

THANK YOU!